A.O. 142.—*Formation of a new Section (A) of the 1st Class Army Reserve.

VICTORIA R.I.

WHEREAS We have deemed it expedient to form a new section of Our 1st Class Army Reserve;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that, with reference to the provisions of the Reserve Forces and Militia Act, 1898, a new section of Our 1st Class Army Reserve, to be styled Section A, shall be formed from the 1st November, 1898, and that the Regulations for Our 1st Class Army Reserve shall be amended in accordance with the following Rules:—

1. Section A will be composed of reservists of the Royal Artillery, Foot Guards, Infantry of the Line, Army Service Corps, and Royal Army Medical Corps, whose character on transfer to the Army Reserve was not lower than "Good," and who may engage, during the first six months of their reserve service, to join that section. Non-commissioned officers will be accepted within such limits as may hereafter be decided. Married men may be accepted, and men may be permitted to marry during their service in Section A.
2. The total strength of Section A will not exceed 5,000 men. There will be no restriction as regards the number of men belonging to particular regiments, but preference will be given to men belonging to regiments whose home units are named for service abroad.
3. Men joining Section A will be enrolled therein on the date of their transfer to the reserve, or at any subsequent period within six months from the date of their transfer to the reserve.
4. The conditions of service will be as follows.—
 - (a) A reservist joining Section A will be liable to be called out on Army Service, under Section 1 of the Reserve Forces and Militia Act, 1898, during the first 12 months of his service in the Army Reserve.
 - (b) During his period of service in Section A a reservist will not be liable to be called out on Army service unless he is required for service outside the United Kingdom when warlike operations are in preparation or in progress, or unless any portion of the reserve is on permanent service under the provisions of Section 12 of the Reserve Forces Act (1882).
 - (c) If called out for Army Service he will not be liable to serve for more than 12 months with the colours from the date of rejoining, unless any portion of the reserve is on permanent service under the provisions of Section 12 of the Reserve Forces Act (1882), in which case the men of Section A will be liable to continue in Army Service, subject to Section 14 (1) of the Reserve Forces Act, 1882.
 - (d) The engagement to join Section A may be revoked by the reservist on giving three months' notice in writing to his commanding officer, provided he is not required for Army service during such three months. On receiving a formal release from his engagement in Section A, he will revert to the section of the reserve to which he belongs, under the terms of his Army attestation.
 - (e) On completing his term of engagement in Section A, a reservist will, in like manner, revert to the section of the reserve to which he would otherwise belong.
5. Before joining Section A each man will be examined by a military medical officer, and only those who are certified as medically fit for service at home and abroad will be accepted.
6. On joining, each man will be required to sign, in duplicate, a declaration, on the accompanying form, before an officer qualified to attest under Section 18 of the Reserve Forces Act, 1892. These declarations will be preserved with the man's original and duplicate attestations.
7. The rate of pay will be 1s. a day, which will be paid monthly in arrear by means of Army Money Orders, and be in lieu of the ordinary Army reserve pay and deferred pay.
8. Men of Section B or C of the Army Reserve, on being enrolled in Section A, will be settled with at once for any balance of ordinary or deferred pay due to them.
9. Life certificates will only be required to be rendered quarterly, under the rules applicable to the other sections of the 1st Class Army Reserve. A new form of Identity Certificate, Army Form D 468, will be used.
10. Forfeiture of pay and service will also be governed by the general regulations of the 1st Class Army Reserve.
11. The numbers joining Section A will be reported to the War Office in the Army Reserve Monthly Return (Army Form D 440).
